My wife and I have lived in the village of Rusthall for 38 years. Rusthall has its own strong identity with a vibrant shopping centre and numerous community facilities including churches, clubs, library and doctors surgery. Although close to Tunbridge Wells Rusthall is a distinct and diverse residential area. We have a parish Council and our councillors provide a very valuable service representing our village community. Local issues are increasingly important and having elected councillors provides residents with a voice and enables local issues to be dealt with by people who care passionately about our local environment. Tunbridge Wells councillors are, naturally, focussed on serving their town. We consider it essential that Rusthall retains its status as a Parish with the same number of Councillors.
