

Telford and Wrekin Borough Council

Personal Details:

Name:

E-mail:

Postcode:

Organisation Name:

Comment text:

The proposal appears to be a retrograde step, given that Apley and Leegomery were sensibly established as separate wards several years ago. With the developments in both wards since that time and the large development recently commenced on the former Maxel site, the requirement to continue to treat the two wards separately is even stronger. The two wards are different in character and as such, are better served by separate representation of respective needs.

Uploaded Documents:

None Uploaded