

I live in the Regency ward and have done for 30 years. Knowing many people in my ward and in the neighbouring wards I feel the affinities within these wards as they are currently divided up just around me are a good way of representing the communities they cover. So my feeling is that we are fine with Regency, Brunswick & Adeleide, Goldsmid, St Peters & North Laine and Queens Park wards as they are.

Uploaded Documents:

None Uploaded