

Wychavon District Council

Personal Details:

Name:

E-mail:

Postcode:

Organisation Name:

Comment text:

I am most surprised that the boundary commission has decided to separate Little and Great Comberton as a result of boundary changes. There is a long tradition of cooperation between the two villages, sharing amenities and similar challenges around a large number of issues including transport, schooling, landscape and development among others. There are strong social and historical connections between 'the Combertons' and it seems to make no sense at all to interfere with this identity.

Uploaded Documents:

None Uploaded