

This map shows the wards and divisions for the district created as a direct consequence of the combined electoral review of East Sussex.
This map should be viewed in conjunction with the maps, reports and Orders that relate to the other four districts and the county that also took part in this review.
Note that any parish ward arrangements shown on this map may have been created as a result of changes to either the ward and/or the division patterns for the authority.
All parish warding arrangements are shown on all maps for the sake of completeness.
The parish electoral arrangements will come into effect at the corresponding district election.
