

TANDRIDGE

NEW ELECTORAL ARRANGEMENTS

October 2023

Currently there are:

- 42 councillors
- 20 wards
- Six three-councillor, 10 two-councillor, four single-councillors per ward

266 residents and organisations helped shape our recommendations

We aim to make sure Tandridge councillors represent a similar number of electors

From elections in 2026:

- 43 councillors
- 18 wards
- 10 three-councillor, five two-councillor, three single-councillors per ward

Currently there are:

- One ward that is more than 10% away from the average number of electors per ward
- No ward that is more than 30% away from the average

Tandridge will move towards:

- No wards being more than 10% away from the average number of electors per ward
- Each councillor representing an average of 1,653 electors
